

More Complex Visualizations

Key Terms

Below is a list and short description of the important keywords learned in this lesson. Please read through and go back and review any concepts you do not fully understand. Great Work!

Keyword	Description
Charles Minard	A data visualization pioneer.
Tornado Charts	A chart that looks like a tornado which has frequency or mean information split by category.
Dashboard	A compilation of visualized metrics that give information about the health of a company. Often used routinely.
Simpson's Paradox	The information changes after you discover an additional explanatory variable.
Dynamic Chart	A graphic that has a user interface, is automatically updated with data, or has animation.
Dr. Hans Rosling	A dynamic chart pioneer.

< PreviousNext >